

Article 1: Name

The name of this organization shall be _____ chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha (ESA) International.

Article 2: Purpose

The purpose of collegiate ESA is to unite students throughout the world and especially at _____ in a dedicated pursuit of excellence that will result in self-fulfillment and meaningful service to others.

Article 3: Objectives

- To seek out and bring together people who wish to improve themselves and their world.
- To join together these people in a supportive and effective chapter.
- To aid those in need in every way possible.
- To play a significant role in identifying and solving community problems and to honor outstanding youth, and men and women who are contributing to our communities.
- To provide the kind of organization in which members are able to discover their own unique capabilities.
- To offer outstanding leadership training and the opportunity to become leaders within this dynamic organization.
- To maintain a stimulating series of educational programs designed to involve and interest our members.
- To create a climate of friendship and belonging in which each member may enjoy a satisfying social life.
- To encourage one another in the pursuit of the high ideals of ESA as expressed in the Ceremony of the Jewels.

Article 4: Membership

Section A:

A member is in good standing with _____ chapter when their membership fee and annual dues are paid in accordance with the international bylaws, and when attendance and assignment requirements of the chapter and the minimum academic requirements of _____ have been met.

Section B:

Membership in _____ chapter is limited to students, faculty, and staff of _____. Any interested candidate not meeting this requirement will be recommended for membership to another local chapter of ESA.

Section C:

_____ Chapter will not discriminate against any member or prospective member on the basis of race, sex, religion, national origin, age, or handicap.